

VACANCY – KITCHEN & BATHROOM TILER

About the role

Joining our talented and exceptional installations team, you'll be working on a variety of projects, helping to reinforce our reputation for excellence while making your mark in a friendly and team-orientated environment by providing a first-rate service in your trade.

We are looking for a highly experienced and talented Tile Fixer/ Tiler who takes pride in their craft and can work to the exceptional standards that Laings expect.

About You

A professional, well presented and motivated individual, passionate about delivering a first-class customer experience.

You must be verbally fluent in English for health & safety reasons, and as this requirement is urgent, you must be currently based in the UK.

We offer

A very competitive salary package + pension (7.5% employer contribution) + company vehicle + other benefits.

Applying for this role

If you believe you have the qualities and experience these positions demand, please submit your CV with a cover letter to tell us why you feel you are suitable to be considered for this role.

While our products attract customers, it's our people who keep them coming back for more!