

VACANCY – KITCHEN JOINER

About the role

Joining our talented and exceptional installations team, you'll be working on a variety of contract site projects, helping to reinforce our reputation for excellence while making your mark in a friendly and team-orientated environment by providing a first rate service in your trade.

We are looking for an experienced and talented Joiner/Kitchen Fitter who takes pride in their work and can work to exceptional standards that Laings expect.

The candidate must be hard working, reliable, trustworthy, and able to work unsupervised.

About You

A professional, well presented, and motivated individual, passionate about delivering a first-class customer experience. You must be a highly skilled and conscientious worker, and preferably CSCS Registered, but not essential.

We offer

A very competitive salary package + pension + company vehicle + other benefits.

Applying for this role

If you believe you have the qualities and experience these positions demand, please submit your CV with a cover letter to tell us why you feel you are suitable to be considered for this role.

While our products attract customers, it's our people who keep them coming back for more!